

Ms. Annabel Rebello, Assistant Lecturer

“I Teach, I Learn, I Learn Therefore I Teach.”

Qualifications: M.A., MSACIT & MSCIT

Teaching Experience:

- Department of English at Maniben Nanavati Women’s College, Vile Parle (W), Mumbai since 2013
- Visiting Faculty for Business Communication and Language Communication Skills at the Department of Administrative Services at Premila Vithaldas Polytechnic, SNTD Women’s University, Juhu, Mumbai (since January 2018)
- English Teacher of Spoken and Functional English at David Sassoon Industrial School, Matunga, Mumbai. (June – December 2017).
- Conducted “English Soft Skills Enhancement/Development Course” for the students of Dr. Bhanuben Nanavati Career Development Centre, Vile Parle (W), Mumbai in 2014

Highlights

- Received the Best Paper Award on “From Reel to Real Identity crisis in ‘The Hunger Games’ Trilogy” at the Two Day National Research Conference at Aurangabad on “Redefining Identities, Cultures and Literatures” organised by The English Literator Society, Pune in 2016
- Published 11 Research Papers at National & International Journals to her credit
- Presented 08 Papers at National & International Seminars / Conferences in India
- Attended 15 National and International Conferences / Seminars / Workshops in India
- Prepared In-house Study Material for DC English students
- Translated and Assisted in script writing for ‘Mahakala’ (2016) one of the shortest play in the Golden Book of World Records.
- Her Interests include: Creative Writing, English Language Teaching, Digital & E-learning Learning, Reading Biographies, Writing Film & Book Reviews, Training students for Personality Development, Conducting Workshops for students.