

Department of English

National Level Online Contest on Celebrating Shakespeare and World Book Day

The Department of English organised a National Level Online Contest on 'Celebrating Shakespeare and World Book Day' for Students and Teachers on 23rd April 2020. The events included the following contest for Students - 2 minutes Video Soliloquy, Poster Making, Meme/Comic Strip Making and the Joy of Reading contest for Teachers. An online Google registration form was sent across which resulted in 36 entries from participants all over India. The participants were asked to send their entries via email or Instagram. The entries were judged by Ms. Vidya Wankhade Mohite and the winners were announced on Instagram. All the participants and winners received e-certificates. The department received positive feedback and was commended for organising such a contest during the lock down period for students as well as teachers.

Some of the Contest Entries received from the participants

